

Social Media & Online Policy

Last reviewed: 08/06/24

Introduction

Barnwood United AFC recognise that everyone involved in football must appreciate their responsibility to safeguard both on and off the field of play. Coaches, club officials, volunteers and others in a position of trust in football need to act responsibly both on and off the field and this includes the use of electronic communications.

As a Club we have set up a website, email addresses and other social media platforms (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn) to communicate with our followers and market our services. We all have a responsibility to ensure safeguards are in place; coaches, officials and those in a position of responsibility and must ensure they communicate responsibly. Our Club is responsible for ensuring all content sent by email, hosted on our websites, social network areas and any associated message boards or blogs abide by the Rules and Regulations of The FA.

To ensure prompt and useful communication on our online platforms, Barnwood United AFC have a team of trusted volunteers operating our social media platforms. Specific roles in the committee also have @barnwoodunited.co.uk email aliases. This policy does not just apply to the social media team nor solely apply to the committee. This policy applies to all players, coaches, managers, colunteers, parents, and anyone associated directly with Barnwood United AFC.

Use of Club Social Media Accounts & Email Aliases

The appointed social media team using the Club's platforms should:

- Refrain from publishing comments about other clubs, players or referees and any controversial or potentially inflammatory subjects.
- Avoid hostile or harassing communications in any posts or other online communications. Harassment is any offensive conduct based on a person's race, sex, gender identity, national origin, colour, disability, age sexual orientation, veteran status, marital status, religion or any other status identified by The Equality Act 2010.
- Identify all copyrighted or borrowed material with citations and links. When publishing direct paraphrased quotes, thoughts, ideas, photos or videos, give credit to the original publisher or author.
- If it maintains a website, blog, chat room, video-sharing site, bulletin board or other social media that promotes their club, should remember they are responsible for reviewing responses to online posts and resolving any concerns about the propriety of the responses before they are posted.

- If a blogger or any other online participant posts an inaccurate, accessory or negative comment about the club or anyone associated with the club, do not respond to the post and contact The Club Operations Manager for guidance/advice.

The appointed social media team using the Club's platforms should not:

- Use text or emails for personal conversations, sending pictures, jokes or other items of a personal nature or engage in any 'banter' or comments with or about children at the club.
- Use internet or web based mobile phones or other form of communications to send personal messages of a non-football nature to a child or young person.
- Respond to emails or texts from young people other than those directly related to club matters.
- Use language that is directly (or could be misinterpreted as being) racist, sexist, derogatory, threatening, abusive or sexualised in tone.
- Make contact with children or young people known through football outside of the football context on social networking sites.
- Post personal comments in relation to the management or operation of the club, club officials, match officials, children, parent/guardian or opposition teams or any family members of those groups.
- Delete any inappropriate text or email messages sent to you as they may form part of any subsequent investigation.

Parent Guidance

As a parent of a youth player you should:

- Know who the Club Welfare Officer is and how to contact them if you have any concerns about the content of club web pages, social media platforms or in relation to the welfare of your child.
- Ensure you are aware of how coaches, managers and other members of the club should communicate with your child
- Show an interest in the communications between the club, you and your child. Open communication about club activities/issues often means that concerns are picked up early and issues can be resolved more easily
- Understand the club's communication practices. If the club uses text messages or emails as a source of communication you may request to be copied into anything sent to your child
- Ensure your child understands that they should tell someone that they trust about communications that make them feel uncomfortable or when they've been asked not to tell their parent/carer or coach about the communication
- Remember as a parent/carer of a child at the club you and your child are responsible for and need to abide by the club policy, and The FA Rules and Regulations regarding comments that you place online about the club or club officials, League, players, managers, match officials, opposing teams players or family members of any of those groups

- Inform the Club Welfare Officer as soon as possible if you or your child receives any inappropriate communication from any member of staff/volunteer or other person associated with the club and save the communication
- Parents must not use social media to speak ill of the club or any staff or associates or to comment on players, training or matches
- Parents must not reveal any information they may have received about a player

Player Guidance

Players should not:

- Post, host, text or email things that are hurtful, insulting, offensive, abusive, threatening, or racist as this would go against football club's rules and could also be against the law. Or post personal comments in relation to the management or operation of the club, club officials, match officials, players, opposition team member(s), or any family members of those above.
- Engage in any personal communications, 'banter' or comments with staff / volunteer(s), players' opposition teams.
- Give out personal details online including mobile numbers, email addresses or social networking account access to people you don't know well offline
- Delete inappropriate text or email messages sent to you as they may form part of any subsequent investigation
- Use inappropriate language
- Reveal information about training, fixtures and contractual agreements etc using social media posts unless already shared in the public domain by the official club accounts

Breaches of this Policy

All breaches of this policy will be considered a disciplinary matter for the committee to review. All reports of cyberbullying and other technology misuses will be investigated fully and may result in notification to the police. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, suspension, or banning from Barnwood United AFC. Sanctions may also be escalated to Gloucestershire FA. Everyone must be aware that in certain circumstances where a crime has been committed, they may be subject to a criminal investigation by the police over which Barnwood United AFC will have no control.
